New Desserts 2019

Basque Cheesecake

Eli's #480501/8"/10 Cut/32 oz./4 pack

Eli Schulman created Chicago-style cheesecake almost 40 years ago by breaking all the rules: no water bath and baking hot and fast. His golden brown caramelized top acted as a heat shield, allowing the rich custard below to soufflé. Fast forward to 2019...Here we are using the same technique to make Basque Cheesecake, this year's "It" dessert from Spain, which is also a rule breaker. It's a little darker on top than Eli's original: It's baked in a striking flutter of burnt parchment paper, and the inside reveals such a rich creamy texture, we think that Basque might be Eli's Spanish cousin.

Japanese-style Cheesecake

Eli's #480500/8"/12 Cut/43 oz./4 pack

Eli's rich cream cheese batter is whipped to a chiffon like consistency and baked in a very hot oven to achieve a soufflé like sponge cake texture and golden crust. The result is a delicious fuwa-fuwa or fluffy cheesecake that is known for its jiggle when it comes out of the oven.

Goat Cheese Cheesecake

Eli's #480502/8"/14 Cut/42 oz./4 pack

It's unbaaa-lievable! Tangy, rich, and not too sweet, this cheesecake is made with goat cheese and cream cheese, baked on a vanilla crumb crust and topped with goat cheese crumbles. It's sweetened with honey produced by student bee keepers at the Chicago High School for Agricultural Sciences.

Confetti Cheesecake

Eli's #295147/9"/14 cut/63 oz./2 pack

It's a double celebration with a housemade layer of yellow confetti cake topped with birthday cake confetti cheesecake and hand-piped vanilla mousse with more sprinkles.

Dairy-Free Vegan Lemon Raspberry Cheesecake

Eli's #885529/20 cut/48 oz./4 pack
 Refreshing lemon cheesecake made with non-GMO tofu from Chicago's Phoenix Bean makes this dessert cholesterol free! It's baked on a layer of lemon cake and finished with housemade raspberry gelee and a dusting of raspberry powder.
